

As Indiana residents who have been spared the previous nightmare of harassing evening phone calls from unwanted solicitations, we are totally opposed to any federal action that would weaken our current state law. Wake up people - we Republicans won the election and we don't need more federal involvement.